

ARE YOU READY TO EARN THIS PROFESSIONAL CREDENTIAL?

- ✓ Enhance your credibility
- ✓ Document your competence
- ✓ Promote your commitment to professional excellence

Do you mobilize and lead volunteers? Are you looking for a way to strengthen your professional image? If so, now is the time to consider earning the CVA (Certified in Volunteer Administration) credential, originally developed by the Association for Volunteer Administration and now sponsored by the Council for Certification in Volunteer Administration.

CCVA offers this unique program to recognize practitioners in the field of volunteer resources management who meet specified standards as measured through an exam and a written portfolio. This is a self-study process requiring no travel or special classes. Individuals with the equivalent of at least 3 years of experience leading and directing volunteers are eligible.

Why this is worth doing...

"I loved the process of acquiring my CVA! I found it personally enriching and professionally valuable. I now have many more resources and abilities at my disposal. I recommend the experience for anyone who is prepared to cultivate their abilities as a professional volunteer manager."

Jason Frenzel-Wright, CVA -- Natural Area Preservation, Ann Arbor, MI USA

"It is a program of high quality and integrity which enhances the image of our profession."

Mary Moreillon, CVA — American Red Cross, Huntsville, AL USA

"I have been in the non-profit field for 20+ years as an executive, all of which involved working with volunteers at some level, and I learned SO MUCH going through this process – both the knowledge level and also about myself and my personal philosophies."

Leanne Porterfield, CVA -- Hospice of Lancaster County, PA USA
